

Giant Flower

What you'll need:

- old magazines
- glue (glue stick or Elmer's)
- scissors
- Fishing wire or ribbon to hang it

How to make it

- Chose colorful pages out of a magazine and cut them in strips of the same size.
- Take the first strip of paper and fold it so the two ends meet. Glue the ends together.
- Add the next strip by gluing one end to the first strip and folding it back on it's self and gluing it the other end to it.
- Continue this process until you have enough petals. You can have a many as you want.
- Attach fishing wire at the center of your flower with glue or you can tie it around one of your petals.
- Hang it !
